

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

OSU Center for Health Sciences

Policy statement for Medical Teaching: Residency Didactics and GME Precepting

The Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine, Office of Continuing Medical Education (OSU-CME) reserves the right to determine eligibility of continuing medical education credits based on the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) CME Sponsors Guidelines.

Credit Reporting Periods

- January 1 – June 30 - due to OSU-CME on the last Friday in May annually
- July 1 – December 31 - due to OSU-CME on the first Friday in January annually

Medical Teaching: Residency Didactics

OSU-CME will report Medical Teaching: Residency Didactics for the following OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) and OSU Medical Center (OSU-MC) programs:

- Addiction Medicine
- Anesthesiology
- Cardiovascular Disease
- Emergency Medicine
- Family Medicine (OMECO & OSU)
- Gastroenterology
- Internal Medicine
- Interventional Cardiology
- Obstetrics & Gynecology (OMECO & OSU)
- ONMM
- Orthopedic Surgery
- Otolaryngology-Head & Neck Surgery
- Pediatrics (OMECO and OSU)
- Psychiatry
- Radiology-Diagnostic
- Surgery

Table of Medical Teaching CME Credits
No Credit	Category 1-A	Category 1-B
Education provided by students, residents, or fellows	Formal lectures	Oral presentations - feedback/grade
Proctoring written exams	Live or live-streamed	Small group - includes CPS and book club
Preparing lectures or lab setup	Previously recorded - must be available for question and answers within 48 hours of scheduled lecture	All lab activity - includes SP's and practical exams
Informal lectures that occur in an office or clinical setting are considered part of precepting	OMM includes lab and excludes precepting	Clerkship/Preceptor of medical students, residents, and fellows
For attending medical teaching lectures / Book or Journal Club

What types of providers are eligible for Medical Teaching CME credits?

- Osteopathic, DO Attending Physicians will receive credit on their transcript and credits will be reported to the AOA.
- Allopathic, MD Attending Physicians will receive credit on their transcript.
- Residents are not eligible to earn CME credits for Medical Teaching.

CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION

OSU Center for Health Sciences

What documentation is required for Medical Teaching credit?

- Physician information and hours on designated excel template.
 - Full name, credential, AOA # if applicable, NPI #, email address, course name, lecture/lab name, lecture/lab date, lecture/lab time, location, total 1-A and/or 1-B hours, and comments.
- Granted on an hour-for-hour basis (CME credit is rounded to nearest 15-minute increment)
- Residency didactics schedule that specifies:
 - Speaker's full name, credential (D.O. or M.D.), lecture title, date, time, and location (room name or number).

GME Precepting

OSU-CME will report GME Precepting for the following OSU Center for Health Sciences (OSU-CHS) and OSU Medical Center (OSU-MC) programs:

- Addiction Medicine
- Anesthesiology
- Cardiovascular Disease
- Emergency Medicine
- Family Medicine (OMECS & OSU)
- Gastroenterology
- Internal Medicine
- Interventional Cardiology
- Obstetrics & Gynecology (OMECS & OSU)
- ONMM
- Orthopedic Surgery
- Otolaryngology-Head & Neck Surgery
- Pediatrics (OMECS and OSU)
- Psychiatry
- Radiology-Diagnostic
- Surgery

What types of providers are eligible for GME Precepting CME credits?

- Osteopathic, DO Attending Physicians will receive credit on their transcript and credits will be reported to the AOA.
- Allopathic, MD Attending Physicians will receive credit on their transcript.
- Residents are not eligible to earn CME credits for precepting.

What documentation is required for precepting credit?

- Preceptor information and hours on designated excel template.
 - Full name, credential, AOA # if applicable, NPI #, email address, total 1-B hours, and comments.
 - Preceptors are awarded 160 1-B credits per reporting period.

Ashley Groom, M.S.

Director of Continuing Medical Education
Oklahoma State University - Center for Health Sciences