ACCREDITATION INFORMATION

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES

The goal of the 2023 Emergency Medicine Review is to provide emergency physicians with the latest in evidence-based medicine practices. Program participants will then apply the knowledge gained back to their existing rural, suburban or urban practice allowing them to bridge the gap between previous therapies and the current best practices.

At the conclusion of this activity, learners will be able to:

- Recognize common, urgent, and emergent problems in the Emergency Department.
- Apply the most up-to-date practices when managing patients in the Emergency Department.
- Identify patients that will benefit from advanced treatment in the Emergency Department.

AOA

The Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association to provide osteopathic continuing medical education for physicians. The Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine designates this program for a maximum of 20 AOA Category 1-A credit(s), and will report CME and specialty credits commensurate with the extent of the physician's participation in this activity.

AAFP

The AAFP has been submitted to the American Academy of Family Physicians for determination of credit.

Oklahoma State Board of Pharmacy

This program will be submitted to the Oklahoma State Board of Pharmacy for determination of credit.

Oklahoma Emergency Medical Services

This program will be submitted to the Oklahoma Emergency Medical Services for determination of credit.
